Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is a powerful, invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. The local, womanly health is so intimately related to the general health that when diseases of the delicate womanly organs are cured the whole body gains in health and strength. For weak and sickly women who are "worn-out," "run-down" or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office or schoolroom, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proven a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving powers.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womanly organs. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Cures obstinate cases. "Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of "female weakness," painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus or falling of the pelvic organs, weak back, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration.

Dr. Pierce's medicines are made from harmless but efficient medical roots found growing in our American forests. The Indians knew of the marvelous curative value of some of these roots and imparted that knowledge to some of the friendlier whites, and gradually some of the more progressive physicians came to test and use them, and ever since they have grown in favor by reason of their superior curative virtues and their safe and harmless qualities.

Your druggists sell the "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" and also that famous alterative, blood purifier and stomach tonic, the "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY." Write to Dr. Pierce about your case. He is an experienced physician and will treat your case as confidential and without charge for correspondence. Address him at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., of which he is chief consulting physician.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Madame Diss DeBar Liberated.

Ann O'Delia Diss DeBar, who, under the name of Laura Jackson, was sentenced on December 20, 1901, to seven years' penal servitude for connection with an immoral cult known as the "Theocratic Unity," of which her reputed husband, Theodore Jackson, was the head, has been liberated from Aylesbury, England, prison under ticket of leave, having obtained the maximum reduction of sentence for good behavior.

Mme. Diss DeBar has been known under many names in the United States and Great Britain, but her greatest notoriety was achieved as the perpetrator of a so-called spiritualistic deception by which Luther R. Marsh, of New York, was in his old age stripped of the fortune he had accumulated in the practice of law. Though claiming to be the daughter of King Louis I. of Bavaria and Lola Montez, she was in fact, the daughter of Prof. John C. F. Saloman, once of Washington and later of Kentucky.

She became the wife of Gen. Joseph H. Diss DeBar in the seventies, and later traveled about the country representing herself as the personification of occult powers and the revealer of hidden truths, spiritualistic and other, and in this way, while living in Washington square, New York, she met Marsh, and, by means of alleged spirit materializations and spirit painted pictures so infatuated him that he gave her large sums of money and deeded to her his home in Madison avenue.

About this time General Diss DeBar left the adventuress, who went to live at the Marsh home, and also hired apartments, where she officiated as a priestess of spiritualism and won greater notoriety.

Suit was brought to show her up as an impostor, and she was charged with conspiring to defraud Marsh. Her trial resulted in her conviction and she was sentenced to a term of imprisonment. On her release she went to Europe, then returned to this country, and going to the West got into more difficulties through her representations of bogus spiritualism. Under the name of Vera P. Ava she fell into the hands of the Chicago police, who sent her to the penitentiary at Joliet for two years. Released from that institution she married William J. McGown in 1895 at Chicago. Mr. McGown, like Marsh, was a man of wealth, but this did not deter her from the practice of fraud. In 1899 she was run out of New Orleans with Theodore Jackson, whose wife she then said she was.

A year later they turned up in Cape Town, South Africa, where Mme. Diss DeBar called herself Helena and Jackson called himself Horos. Occultism and hypnotic performances were the order there, and one of her South African dupes, a wealthy contractor, gave his money to the woman to establish a colony of brotherly love. Soon afterwards the pair went to London, where they promoted the Theocratic Unity organization, scandals in connection with which led to their arrest in September, 1901. The trial, which continued at intervals through three months, developed facts of such a loathsome character that several of the London papers excluded from their columns all reports of the proceedings in court.

Mr. Justice Bigham summed up strongly against the prisoners, saying it was difficult to conceive of more revolting and abominable conduct than that which had been attributed to them. The jury quickly returned a verdict of guilty, whereupon the justice sentenced Jackson to 15 years' penal servitude and his reputed wife to 7 years, penal servitude.

Bank Officers Arrested.

Alexander R. Chisolm, paying teller of the First National Bank, in Birmingham, Ala., was arrested yesterday charged with the embezzlement of $97,000 of the bank's funds. He was held by United States Commissioner R. E. Watson.

During the afternoon W. L. Sims and C. M. Hays, manager and assistant manager of one of the chief stock and cotton brokerage houses in Birmingham, were arrested, charged with aiding and abetting the embezzlement of national bank funds. They were released yesterday evening on bonds.

The shortage at the First National Bank was discovered while Chisolm was on vacation. The bank has a large reserve fund on hand, and it was from this that the amount was taken. There was no regular time for counting the cash in the reserve funds, which accounts for the fact that the shortage was not discovered sooner. It was decided to wait until Chisolm returned. When he stepped from a train yesterday morning, he was confronted by the federal officers and several directors of the bank. He later made a full confession.

W. P. G. Harding, president, said that the bank would not lose the whole amount, and that the loss would not affect the institution. The bank has a capital of $1,000,000, and a surplus of $400,000.

When Chisolm was arrested $3,000 was taken from his suit case. He was bonded for $80,000. The difference, $64,000, between these amounts and the shortage, has already been taken from the undivided profits account of the bank and charged to profit and loss.

Young Chisolm was one of the most popular young men socially and personally in Birmingham. It is said that nearly all the money embezzled by him was used in speculation in cotton futures, and that his losses have extended over a period of several months. It is said that he traded under an assumed name, and made all his payments for margins in cash.

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college, said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains; no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic has neither faith, hope or charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 601 Kingstreet.

Returns After 31 Years.

After an unexplained absence of 31 years Prof. Charles H. Frye, former superintendent of the Chicago Normal School, returned Sunday to Chicago. One of his acts upon arriving home was to hand 50 $100 bills to his wife, with the remark "Ask me no questions."

Frye was 31 years old when he disappeared. Since that day no word had been received from him by his wife. He was recognized immediately in spite of his added years and altered appearance. He is said to have made money in the Philippine Islands, where he resided for several years.

His wish that no questions be asked him regarding his wanderings has been respected and he has settled down at home as though nothing had happened.

A Healing Gospel.

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters:" "It's a Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints, and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price only 50c.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS

TUESDAY EVENING. AUG. 14. 1906.

WRITING OF the recent decline in the price of brick, the New York Sun says editorially:

A critical situation has arisen in the building industry, owing to a sudden fall in the price of brick, which has fallen some 50 per cent. since last May. The decline, if permanent, must affect the value of the great majority of the buildings, old and new, in New York. It is likely, however, to be especially disastrous in the case of apartment houses. There is at present a big oversupply of such dwellings and rents have consequently begun to decline. Even without any marked recession in the cost of construction the position in which owners of apartment houses find themselves is therefore by no means reassuring. The slump in the price of brick will, unless purely temporary, result in a depreciation of at least $1,500 in the average cheap apartment building. There is apparently much difference of opinion as to the cause of the slump. It is generally admitted, however, that brick has been abnormally high for some time, and that while a partial recovery in price is to be expected, it will hardly be very pronounced. In many quarters it is asserted that the fall in the price of brick is traceable to the competition from concrete construction. At the same time concrete is displacing brick all over the country, particularly in the west, being cheaper and possessing, it is said, equal advantages as a structural material.

There is no doubt that building material has reached the limit and a general reduction is predicted.

A CASE involving the responsibility of retailers of canned foods was heard in Brighton, England, yesterday, in which a merchant was charged with exposing for sale 38 tins of chicken unfit for human consumption. In defense it was contended that it was absolutely impossible for the dealer to know the condition of the food when there was nothing externally to indicate that the contents of the cans were unsound. Nevertheless, the merchant was fined, the magistrates holding him amenable to the law, as he was in possession of the goods. The magistrates decided the case properly, and similar action should be taken in this country in such matters. It is no uncommon occurrence for people in the United States to be poisoned by certain canned goods, and somebody should be made responsible.

THE republicans of this district today went to some unnecessary trouble and a little needless expense in nominating a candidate for Congress to oppose Mr. Rixey, the democratic nominee. The "honor" is an entirely empty one, and it is more than doubtful even if the nominee will be allowed to control the federal patronage in the district, as Col. Slemp has the entire management of the republican political affairs throughout the State and he will relinquish nothing. It is very probable that some of the men who today helped nominate Mr. Henderson will on election day vote for Mr. Rixey, so sure are they of the latter's election.

TWO SUICIDES of bank officers have taken place during the past few days—one in Chicago and one in Goshen, Indiana. A teller in Birmingham, Ala., has been found to be $100,000 short in his accounts. The actors in these scenes are said to be the victims of fast living, race tracks and speculation. Such occurrences are likely to cause wide-spread trouble in the financial world, as they often precipitate panics. People lose confidence in banks and runs on these institutions follow. The result of such can be found in the history of most of the monetary troubles which have beset this country.

THE TIE UP in building operations in Washington is causing anxiety not only in that city but in Alexandria also, as many mechanics who live in this city are affected. The workmen are contending against the movement on the part of their employees to inaugurate what is known as the "open-shop." It is hoped that the matter will soon be adjudicated and work resumed. The summer is nearing its close, and ere long preparations for winter will be in order. A dearth in work throughout the fall will make such difficult on the part of all who depend upon daily labor for subsistence.

THE ABANDONMENT of the Washington-Southern Railway freight yard at Fayette street and the transfer of the yard to the union station outside the city limits has caused great inconvenience to Alexandria shippers, who are loud in their denunciation of the whole affair. Some of the merchants have already given orders to have their freight shipped by other lines, and it is said that this movement will grow.

SPECIAL COMMISSIONER A. E. POST, for the division of exhibits of the Jamestown Exposition, has begun a tour of northern cities to point out the advantage of manufacturers taking space. He rightly argues that it is a great opportunity for northern industries to be exploited before southern eyes. The exhibits will be grouped in various buildings, instead of being scattered indiscriminately.

PEOPLE read advertisements for the good reason that they are concerned to know where to buy what they want. Also, as an experienced advertiser says, "an advertisement can be made as interesting as any of the unpaid articles in a newspaper."

Attention has been called by many going to the canal zone to the industry of catching the hawk's bill turtle, which produces the tortoise shell of commerce along the coast in the neighborhood of Colon. As a result, the importation to this country has rapidly increased, according to Consul James C. Kellog, of Colon, and tortoise shell may become quite popular. The hawk's bill turtle is found only in the Gulf of Mexico and Caribbean Sea. Coming ashore to deposit eggs to be hatched in the sun, the turtles are captured. They vary in size from one to four-and-a-half feet, with a maximum weight of 150 pounds. The average weight of the shell obtained from each is from six to seven pounds. The price of the shell in Colon fluctuates from $3 to $6 per pound. Old turtles have a thin yellow plate on the belly, which commands an exhorbitant price and is much sought after.

This is one of the strong banks of the South, the last report of the condition of the bank for June 18, 1906 showing a surplus fund of $400,000 and undivided profits of $140,789.

The fertilizer trust cases have reached the Supreme Court of the United States, having been docketed today. They are in the form of appeals from the decision of Judge Goff, of the United States Circuit bench, who denied writs of habeas corpus in the cases of Jas. G. Tinley, of the Tennessee Fertilizer Co., and others indicted on the charge of conspiracy in restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act. A half dozen defendant fertilizer concerns are involved. All of the indicted officials are under $5,000 bond each to answer for trial in the federal court for the middle district of Tennessee, should the habeas corpus matter be decided adverse to them in the Supreme Court.

It costs more for a workingman to live in the North Atlantic States than in any other section of the country, according to supplemental statistics on retail prices of food given out by the Bureau of Labor today. Investigation of the cost of living among 2,567 families of workingmen scattered all over the United States, shows that the average expenditures for food in 1905 was $349 27. The average cost of all foods consumed during the year was $362 in the North Atlantic States; $315.68 in the South Atlantic States; $342 82 in the North Central States; $317 32 in the South Central States, and $326 44 in the Western States. The average cost of food throughout the United States was greater in 1905 than in any of the 15 years preceeding. In the past 10 years the increase has been $52 51 or 17.7 per cent. It is stated that expenditures for food alone represent 42 54 per cent. of all family expenditures.

Secretary Wilson left last week on his second trip of inspections of packing houses without intimating to a soul in Washington, even his private secretary, where he was going. Newspaper men in Chicago discovered him in that city one day, only to loose him. Affairs at the department are being looked after during his absence by Assistant Secretary Hayes. There is no urgent demand for the secretary's return, but there is a general anxiety to know when the great farmer cabinet official is to return.

Clevelanders See Mirage.

Residents of the Heights, in the eastern part of Celeland, O., Sunday witnessed one of the most remarkable mirages of which there is any record in this part of the country. Wonderfully clear and distinct, the Canadian shore of Lake Erie, 60 miles distant, was spread out before them in the sky. The phenomenon lasted for over an hour and attracted the notice of thousands of people before it faded. The inverted atmospheric picture was so clear that the city of Rondeau could be plainly seen, the church spires and principal buildings standing out in bold relief. Tall trees and a river emptying into the lake could also be seen.

Four Boys Killed.

An eastbound Pennsylvania Railroad flyer, running sixty miles an hour, struck and killed four boys on a trestle crossing over the Central Railroad tracks at Elizabeth, N. J., yesterday. The boys were: Walter and Lloyd Griffin, brothers, aged, respectively, eleven and eight years; William Griffin, aged nine, and Raymond Daubner, aged eight, all of Elizabeth. The boys were walking westward, hand in hand, in the center of the east-bound track, when the train swung around a slight curve at the station. The engineer blew his whistle and applied the brakes, but too late, as the boys appeared terror-stricken by their danger. The train traveled a distance of two blocks before it could be stopped. All four boys were killed instantly.

Witnesses say that the boys tried to save themselves by clinging to the side girders of the treatle, but the cylinder heads of the engine struck them. Two of the bodies dropped to the tracks of the Central Railroad, twenty-five feet below. One of these was the body of Walter Griffin. His head was found lying on top of a central stone support of the trestle. All of the boys were struck on the back of the head.

The engine was one of the Welchard valve-gear type, carrying large double cylinders that leave no room on the trestle for any one to stand in safety.

The death of the four boys makes six that have occurred at the same spot within a year.

Watson Arrested.

Charles Elmer Watson, a government clerk, who is charged by the Civil Service Commission with having personated his brother, James Watson, in taking an examination before the board, was arrested yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at his desk in the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, Navy Department, in Washington. Watson, who left Washington just at the time the warrant was issued for his arrest, returned to work yesterday morning, stating that the charges made against him were false.

After sending Watson back to the desk, Chief Clerk Tucker called up District Attorney Baker on the telephone, and Deputy Marshal Wilkerson appeared and placed Watson under arrest. The deputy took Watson to the office of United States Commissioner Taylor, where he was arraigned. By his attorneys, Douglass & Douglass, a plea of not guilty was entered, and demand made for his immediate release on the ground that there was no evidence before the court.

Assistant United States Attorney Stuart McNamara opposed the release of Watson, explaining that the papers in the case were in St. Louis, where James Watson is said to be under arrest, and that they could be returned to Washington before Friday.

Juvenile Robbers.

Powell Brothers, storekeepers, in Hanover county, were held up in their store late Saturday night by two youths, 20 and 17 years old, respectively. One of the boys covered the two men with a big pistol, while the other emptied the cash drawer of $68, the result of Saturday's trade.

While backing out of the store with cocked pistols they returned thanks for courteous treatment. On Sunday morning the boys were seen in the neighborhood of Hanover Courthouse, and later were captured at a spring by a posse with shotguns.

The boys had pulled off their clothes to wash, leaving their pistols with the clothes, and were defenseless when the officers called on them to throw up their hands. They declared that if they had been able to reach their pistols they would have made it lively for the officers. They refused to give their names, but said they were from Kentucky, and that they had been holding up people for three years, and always got away. There is strong suspicion that one of the boys is from Richmond. They are now in jail at Hanover Courthouse, awaiting trial.

Court-Martial Rends Army.

Advices from the Philippines say army circles there are all torn up over the trial by court-martial of Captain L. M. Koehler, Fourth Cavalry, for accusing General Leonard Wood, the President's chum and commander of the Philippine division, of malicious prosecution and other illegal acts, in order to protect General Wood's friend, Major Hugh L. Scott, who was charged with violation of regulations by Captain Koehler.

For bringing the charges against Major Scott, Koehler was court-martialed by order of General Wood, convicted and reprimanded. As a result Captain Koehler wrote a letter to the Secretary of War, making the serious accusation recited above against General Wood. For this he was ordered to be again court-martialed on charges of insubordination. This court-martial is now going on in the Philippines.

In his letter to the Secretary of War complaining of the manner in which his first court-martial was conducted Captain Koehler used this language:

"The severity, even to harshness of the reprimand administered, shows prejudice, bias, unfairness and a preconceived conviction that I was guilty, as originally charged. There was no evidence produced by the prosecution to show that my charges against Major Scott were 'malicious,' yet the reviewing authority (General Wood) insists that I should have been found guilty, as charged, without any evidence to support such allegations.

"The case has so many irregular and unusual features, and I am so thoroughly possessed with the feeling that I have not been given a fair trial, but have been the victim of prejudice, bias and even malice that I beg for a full and complete review of the case at the hands of the Secretary of War, with a view of the setting aside of the findings, sentence and reprimand."

The Trouble on Brooklyn Rapid Transit.

New York, Aug. 14.—The Brooklyn Rapid Transit still continues its reign of violence in the effort to collect the additional five-cent fare to Coney Island, which Justice Gaynor has declared illegal, and patrons of the road who resist the additional payment are subjected to brutality. The police instead of protecting the passengers from assault are now aiding the hired bouncers of the road to collect the extra fare.

One girl is dead and another badly injured as the result of assaults and ejectments from the company's cars. Coney Island is practically marooned today, because the company has suspended the summer schedules in attempting to wring the extra fare from the public. More than one thousand people were held up all night between the city and the island on cars which the company stalled when the additional five cents could not be collected.

It was announced yesterday that the police would protect the public from the company's agents, but the order lasted only a short while, and last night it was given out by the department that the Brooklyn Rapid Transit might use reasonable force in ejecting a passenger for refusing to pay the extra fare.

Fishermen have found under the Culver route trestle over Coney Island creek, the first tragedy of "bloody Sunday" when they came upon the body of Miss Fannie Rodinski, the daughter of a rabbi, of Brooklyn.

The girl with a twelve-year-old companion, Edna Siniger, had been thrown from a car by inspectors in spite of the fact that they had paid double fares. They then tried to walk to the island and in crossing the trestle, Fannie Rodinski was knocked off by a passenger train into the creek. Her body when found was covered with bruises, indicating that she had been roughly handled before she was struck by the train.

Frightened by threats from various civic bodies that unless there was a full resumption of traffic on their Coney Island lines moves would be made to have the charter of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit annulled, the company this morning resumed its trolley service to the island. As on previous occasions, persons who refused to pay the extra fare were thrown from the cars.

Borough President Color of Brooklyn has ordered the police to arrest any employee of the road who places his hand on a passenger. As the police are now acting with the company's orders from police heads much confusion will likely result. Acting Mayor McGowan, of the city, has indicated to acting Police Commissioner Waldo that the Brooklyn Rapid Transit is within its rights in the matter of ejecting passengers.

Intimations were made in Brooklyn this morning that President Coler would ask Governor Higgins to remove acting Mayor McGowan and Commissioner Waldo.

Sheriff Flaherty at noon today announced that under advice he had decided to take charge of the B. R. T. situation and see to it that the employees commit no outrages on the public.

After Fascinating "Widow."

New York, Aug. 14 — Mrs. Binna F. Verrault, alias Mrs. Helen Hamilton, nee Binna Finnegan, of Ironton, Wis., the fascinating "widow" who pledged her hand in marriage to several "known victims," is today being industriously sought by federal and county authorities. Two warrants have been issued for her arrest, charging her with swindling through the mails, and her attorneys promised that the nimble-witted operator in the heart market would appear before United States Commissioner Shields yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Verrault failed to put in an appearance, however, and it was declared that she was a fugitive from justice. Commissioner Shields again awaited her in office this morning, but the chances that she would appear were considered rather slim. Mrs. Verrault is declared to be the prime factor in a national matrimonial swindling bureau.

Shortly before noon Hugh Gordon Miller, of Mark & Miller, counsel for Mrs. Verrault, also known as Mrs. Hamilton, surrendered the defendant to the officers of United States Marshal Henkel.

When Mrs. Verrault was arraigned before Commissioner Shields none of the complainants was present. Attorney Miller asked Commissioner Shields to release the defendant on her own recognizance on the Kiesler and Zelanoff charges until September 26, on which date she is to answer the charges of James McClellan, of Philadelphia, also known as "Victim No. 1." Commissioner Shields granted the request.

Czar to Review Guards.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 14 —The Czar, accompanied by his family, left Peterhof today for Krasnoye Selo, where he will witness the maneuvers of the guards which are now poceeding there. The Czar had planned to make this trip for some time, but the attempt last Friday on the life of the Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaivitch during a review of troops at Kransoye Selo, it was announced that the imperial programme had been changed. Nicholas, however, apparently reconsidered this decision, and determined to show himself to the soldiers. The Czar will review the troops with his infant son, the Czarevitch, thus appearing before all the soldiers stationed at Krasnoye. It was with the hope of establishing closer relations between the royal family and the loyalist guards that the Czar's trip to Krasnoye was planned. By showing his confidence in their loyalty Nicholas believes their devotion to himself and his family will be strengthened. Extraordinary precautions have been taken to guard the royal family against assissination on the trip and to protect the Czar during the review. One hundred detectives have been sent to Krasnoye Selo, and they are relied upon to guard the monarch.

Ice Trust Inquiry.

Toledo, O., Aug. 14.—The government's ice trust inquiry began today. The Interstate Commerce Commission hearing is expected to show rebates in some form were given favored ice dealers discrimination by railroads against independent ice dealers; that railroads are the real ice trusts and used their power to coerce and compel independent dealers to fix prices, and charity was used as a cloak to cover the sins of the railroads, and that ice shipped at charity rates was delivered to local agents of the railroad ice trust. The government this morning denied the request of certain Michigan witnesses to be excused. These include officers of railroads.

Providence, R. I., Aug.—In the report of the state bureau of industrial statistics to be made public tomorrow, the American Ice Company, which it is alleged, controls a major portion of the ice privileges and facilities in Maine, will be severely censured for the prevalence of high ice rates in this city this summer. The report asserts that the American Ice Company has been practicting a a systematic curtailment of the output of the commodity from their fields for several years, and that during the past four years only one third of the total amount available has been cut by the employes of the company.

Searching for Fugitive Bank President.

Chicago, Aug., 14.—An organized hunt is in progress today in the vicinity of Madison, Baraboo, Mendota and other Wisconsin towns, directed by the Chicago police, who believe they are on the right trail of Paul O. Stensland, fugitive bank wrecker. The reward offered by the Chicago Clearing House of $5,000 has stirred the police of the continent to action in the search. Receiver John C. Fetzer, now in control of the bank's affairs, will fight the appointment of the Chicago Title and Trust Co., as a rival receiver. ### Rival Railroads.

Bristol, Tenn., Aug. 14.—The Louisville and Nashville Railway and the Virginia and Southwestern Railway are in a fierce contest for advantages in securing right of way for an extension from their main lines into the new coal fields of Lee county, Va., where a dozen important companies are opening mines at present. The latter road undertook some time ago to construct a million-dollar extension, and realizing the probable advantage this company would have, the Louisville and Nashville Company has hurried a corps of locating engineers into the same territory. The conflict is said to be strenuous. The coal deposits it is proposed to reach are among the finest and most abundant in the South.

Rejected by the Pope.

Rome, Aug. 14 —The principle of the management of church affairs to lay organizations as provided for under the French law for the separation of church and State, is unhesitatingly rejected by Pope Pius X. in his instructions to French clergy for their guidance under the new regime. The important document outlining the course to be followed by the French clergy was issued today. While the document shows that the pontiff considers it impossible to allow church organizations to conduct church affairs, its form, however, leaves open the possibility for an understanding to be reached in the future on the basis of the complete separation of church and State.

He is now out of his mind and may not recover. Campbell left his wife and two children to go West, expecting to send for them. After the burning of a Seattle hotel, where he was staying, his wife could find no trace of him. He had been injured and was out of his mind for a time, being told later that his wife was dead. Grief stricken, he joined the English forces in the Boer war. Returning here he visited the home of his son, Robert, who was married. He introduced himself and was then confronted by his wife, who came suddenly from another room. He evidently thought he saw an apparition, for as she embraced him he swooned and has since been in a dangerous condition.

Sealing Operations in Behring Sea.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 14.—It has been intimated to certain government officials that the United States government would now not be unwilling to consider negotiations relative to the discontinuance with the states of pelagic sealing by Canadian and Japanese fleets in the Behring Sea. Undoubtedly the United States government is desirous of securing such an understanding with Great Britain as will end Canadian sealing operations in Behring Sea. The Dominion government is willing enough to discuss certain propositions that have been made, but some time ago intimated to the United States that it would be better at the same time to deal with other questions outstanding between the two countries. It is felt here that a tribunal will be appointed some day to act upon suggestions, but, thus far, it has not been acted upon.

A Baker's Complaint.

John Bender, a baker, at 2127 G street northwest, Washington, who recently announced that he intended hereafter to run his establishment independent of labor unions, yesterday appealed to the courts for protection. In his petition for an injunction, he names as defendants Local Union, No. 118; Bakers and Confectionery Workers' International Union, and the Central Labor Union of the District of Columbia.

Before he declared an "open shop" Mr. Bender says, he was constantly annoyed by the labor unions, and now that he has given notice that he intends employing labor independently he has been made the particular object of persecution by the unions. Unless an injunction is issued, he declares, he will suffer irreparable loss.

The petition alleges that pickets have been posted around Mr. Bender's establishment and that attempts have been made to intimidate his employes. His name has been placed on a list which is called the "We Don't Patronize" list, he charges, and has also been published in newspapers and circulars as "unfair to organized labor."

Justice Barnard ordered the president and secretary of each of the labor unions named to appear on August 20 and show cause why they should not be compelled to desist from their alleged unlawful interference with Mr. Bender's business.

Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Upwards of 10,000 members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles arrived at Milwaukee yesterday to attend the national convention of the order which opens today. Festivities will continue throughout the week. Nearly every large delegation is accompanied by a band.

Grand Worthy President Henry D. Davis, of the order, gave out his annual report for publication last night. President Davis notes a total membership of 250,000 at the end of the eighth year.

It appears practically settled that the next convention will be held at Norfolk, Va. Both factions which are contending for places on the list of officers are friendly disposed to Milwaukee, though Omaha is making a strong bid for the honor. A strong contest will be made on the board of trustees, it being understood that positions on the board will be traded for votes on the ticket for officers.

A bitter fight is being made on Frank Hering, candidate for re-election for treasurer, who broke the Henry Davis slate at Denver Sunday night. The Davis faction, which is supporting Woodo N. Carr for the presidency, has taken up Charles A. Stephens, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Wife Admits Lies.

In court at Trenton, N. J., yesterday morning Mrs. Alvin Hasbrouck, of 161 Brunswick avenue, refused to prosecute her husband, whom she had caused to be arrested Sunday, by telling the police that he used to tie up their 10-year-old son by the thumbs and whip him in that position.

She declared that she had told untruths to the police, and the people of her neighborhood whom the police had subpoenaed to give testimony sent physicians' certificates that they were too ill to attend court. Judge Harris was nonplussed, and, when all the evidence against the man fell to pieces, he discharged the man, after scoring the wife for making such sensational charges against her husband.

Republican Convention.

When Chairman H. P. Dodge, of the Eighth district republican committee, called the congressional convention to order at 1:30 today in Schuler's Hall every county was represented except King George. It was stated that a delegate from King George was in the city but not in the hall. E. L. Howard, of Fairfax, acted as secretary. The roll call showed that nearly all of the delegates were present in person or by proxy. According to the call Alexandria city was entitled to 4 delegates, Alexandria county 3, Culpeper 5, Fairfax 6, Fauquier 8, King George 4, Loudoun 8, Louisa 5, Orange 5, Prince William 3 and Stafford 10, making a total of 61. In preparation for the meeting the hall had been decorated with all of the colors of the rainbow and some that were not recognized as such.

Shortly after the roll call had been completed a representative from King George appeared and was recognized.

In stating the object of the meeting Chairman Dodge referred to President Roosevelt and Chairman Slemp and their names were heartily applauded.

M. K. Lowery and Capt. A. L. Bidi Zerega were nominated for temporary chairman. The former begged to be excused and Capt. di Zerega was chosen. Mr. E. L. Howard was elected temporary secretary.

The meeting was strictly of the lily white variety.

Mr. Phillips, of this city, and his delegation (which it had been stated had been appointed at a meeting composed of Mr. Phillips and one), failed to materialize and the expected contest did not occur. Committees on resolutions and permanent organization, consisting of one member of each delegation, were then appointed and allowed thirty minutes in which to report. The committees were as follows:

Committee on Permanent Organization:—J. L. Crupper, Alexandria city; H. Parker, Alexandria county, E. J. Eggborn, Culpeper; R. R. Farr, Fairfax; J. L. Grayson, Fauquier, F. W. Payne, King George; J. R. Walker, Loudoun; B. A. Henson, Louisa; F. W. Carter, Orange J. R. King, Prince William; W. E. Brookes, Stafford.

Committee on Resolutions:—J. A. Eggborn, Alexandria city; Wm. Duncan, Alexandria county; L. L. Whitestone, Culpeper; J. C. DePatron, Fairfax; C. C. Middleton, Fauquier; F. W. Payne, King George; J. W. Gregg, Loudoun; Wm. E. Cunningham, Louisa; A. C. Eddins, Orange; E. Keyser, Prince William, M. K. Lowery, Stafford.

At 2.20 the convention reassembled, and the committee on permanent organization recommended Mr. M. K. Lowery, of Stafford, as permanent chairman, and Mr. E. L. Howard, of Fairfax, as permanent secretary, and they were both unanimously elected. Mr. Lowery in a brief speech criticised the democratic party for taking the election of commissioners of revenue from the people and placing the appointment of commissioners in the hands of a partizan judiciary. He also scored the democratic party for creating the offices of insurance commissioner and road commissioner, &c.

Mr. Charles J. Sims, of the county, offered a resolution to incorporate in the resolutions a plank in favor of a revision of the tariff. He said the time for strenuous protection has subsided and urged his resolution. Mr. Hanson moved "that we stand pat" and he was applauded.

Capt. di Zerega nominated J. B. Henderson for Congress, this being the next business in order, and the nomination was seconded by Mr. Deputron. It was stated by Mr. Sims that Mr. Henderson was at Bar Harbor, but that he had been told by Mr. Henderson that he would accept the nomination. Messrs Crupper, Sims and Howard were appointed a committee to notify him of his nomination.

The election of State committeemen resulted as follows: E Walton, of Fairfax; Wm. Brown, of Loudoun; W. H Eggborn, of Culpeper; Thos. W. Carter, of Orange and Judge W. B. G. Shumate, of Culpeper.

Mr. Crupper then nominated Mr. Howard P. Dodge for re-election as chairman of the district, and he was unanimously elected, and the convention adjourned.

Immediately after the adjournment the district committee, which is composed of the chairman of each county, met and organized.

The resolutions adopted by the convention approved the course of President Roosevelt and the action of Congress in regard to trusts, and also endorsing the leadership of Hon. C. B. Slemp, chairman of the republican State committee.

Operations at a Standstill.

The conflict between the employers in the building trades of Washington and various labor organizations which have struck out of sympathy with the plumbers has reached such a stage that today practically all large building operations in Washington are at a standstill. It was estimated yesterday afternoon that work had been abandoned on from 20 to 25 large building operations in the city. What is even more serious is the fact that several large projects have been abandoned for the present. Among them is a magnificent apartment house which Thomas J. Walsh, the Colorado millionaire, had intended erecting on the site of the Oxford Hotel, at the corner of Fourteenth street and New York avenue. Both sides are animated by the most determined spirit. The labor organizations declare that they believe there is a disposition among the master builders in Washington to declare the "open shop," and that this declaration means the destruction of the organized unions. They say that the fight is one for the life of their union, and as it had to be made sooner or later, they have decided to make it now.

The Weather.

The weather since Sunday night has been rainy and cooler. Early this morning there were heavy [downpours of rain at short intervals. The Weather Bureau announces that a hot wave—one equal in every respect to those which have preceded it—is on the way, and will arrive tomorrow. The wave is said to be in the Ohio Valley, and is rapidly moving in this direction. The Weather Bureau predicts that it will be of short duration and that the temperature will become mild toward the end of the week.

Flagman Killed.

John Loving, a flagman on the Manassas branch of the Southern Railway, was struck by the Washington-Strasburg passenger train, No. 15, Saturday night near Front Royal Junction, and his skull was crushed. He died six hours later in the Strasburg Hospital. Loving had been sent back by a freight conductor to stop oncoming trains while his train was doing yard work at Front Royal. It is supposed that he went to sleep on the track. The pilot of the engine struck him squarely on the head, hurling him down the embankment. He never recovered consciousness. Loving was about 25 years old and was a native of Nelson county. He leaves a widow and several children.

Accused Dismissed.

As was stated in the Gazette, Grover Cleveland O'Neal was roughly handled by one of the circus elephants yesterday, one of his arms having been dislocated by the beast. O'Neal later swore out a warrant against Joseph Cannon and William McCasey, attaches of the Jones circus, charging them with being responsible for the damage done by the elephant, the plaintiff contending that one of them caused the animal to attack him while the other assaulted him. Officers Knight and Nicholson arrested the two men and they appeared in the Police Court this morning. They were dismissed by Justice Caton.

Luna Park Attractions.

Ralph Johnstone, expert bicycle manipulator, and the Navassars Ladies' Band constitute the most interesting attractions of the present week's programme at Washington Luna Park. The performances of Mr. Johnstone are remarkable. His exhibitions take place at 4 and 9:15 p. m., on the big Hippodrome stage. The Navassars Ladies' Band are in their last week at Luna, and their concerts are greatly enjoyed. The singing of Miss Mae Louise Campbell is commended. The "Anvil Chorus" was rendered again last night. The attractions along "the trail" have all been given a thorough overhauling and several new features have been added. Several improvements have been made in the Tours of the World, Chateau Alphonse, and Temple of Mystery. The free admission to all school children Saturday afternoons has proven a great feature at Luna Park. It is estimated that over 40,000 little stay-at-homes have taken advantage of the opportunity afforded to spend a day in the picnic groves and scamper over the recreation grounds at the big resort. Outings are now being booked for the months of September and October which is evident that the park will remain open much longer than has been expected.

Among the interesting events scheduled for the park next week is Barlow's herd of trained elephants and the return engagement of Philippini's Spanish Band. There being no car large enough on the railway adjacent to Luna Park, it has been found necessary to have the herd of elephants walk from the railway station at this city to the park. The fact that the largest elephant of the herd is over eleven feet in height prevents the accommodation of the big fellow in any other than his own special car. This attraction comes to Luna Park direct from an extended engagement at Coney Island, New York, where the performances of the mastodon actors created a sensation. They will be seen every afternoon and evening on the hippodrome stage at 4 and 9:15 p. m. daily. The fact that children will be permitted to ride on the back of the big elephant "Hercules," is destined to crowd the big amusement resort with thousands of little ones all of next week. The return engagement of Philippini's Spanish Band will be one of the musical events of the park season in Washington. This splendid organization filled an engagement at Luna Park earlier in the present season and their work was an agreeable surprise to all the musical critics. Don Philippini, leader of the band, has been likened to the great Creatore. He is a magnetic conductor and wields the baton with great skill. The band numbers 50 talented musicians. They will be heard every afternoon and evening in the big musical shell. A special ragtime concert will be given each Friday afternoon and evening and a grand sacred concert Sunday.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The City Council meets tonight.

We have received an invitation to attend the 53d annual exhibition of the Agricultural Society of Montgomery county, Md., to be held at Rockville on August 21—24. Many Alexandrians annually attend the Rockville fair and always enjoy what they see there.

During the present rainy season, which threatens to continue indefinitely, there is no member of the great family of vegetation making more rapid strides heavenward than the ever-present weeds, and in some sections of the city no matter in which direction the vision is directed towering healthy-looking, prize-winning stalks can be seen.

The heavy rains have caused considerable damage in all this section of the country, besides greatly retarding the farmers in their work. The damage at Occoquan by a flood yesterday was quite extensive.

After two days of cloud and rain the skies cleared today and the sun came out brightly. The temperature rose and at 3 o'clock the mercury registered 84°.

He Had Already "Et."

"I know a western Kansas town where the rules of etiquette are purely upon a logical basis," said a man from the short grass country the other day. "The daughter of the hotel keeper at whose hostelry I was living was to be married. I received an invitation. At about 11 o'clock in the evening the wedding supper was spread. An old lady came down the table side, passing the viands to the guests. When she reached my plate she skipped me and began again with the next man. The old lady had seen me eating my supper as usual at 6 o'clock.

"'You've et,' she said as she gave me the go by. Things began to look dubious for me. Then an old man came along with more food. He also had seen me eating at the usual evening hour. He shied around me with a look of surprise that I should be at the feed rack again and said, 'Why, you've et.'

"Everybody had been 'saving up' for the occasion so that they might eat like heroes at that wedding feast. The fact that I had not been missing any meals nearly ostracized me in that happy gathering."—Kansas City Times.

The Fate of Cities.

Some ancient cities have disappeared. The archaeologist digs through the sands of the desert, the accumulations of vegetable mold and the debris of human habitation in a search for the palaces of great kings, the markets of wealthy traders and the homes of a once numerous people. The massacres of ancient warfare may explain some of these dead and buried cities. The inability of people in early history to deal with the sanitary problems of a congested population may have been a contributing cause to their destruction. Cities may have died because their people could not live. But in most cases a change in the routes of commerce will be found to have diverted the stream of nourishment from a city and left it to die of starvation. Yet the Eternal City and Athens, Byzantium, Jerusalem, Antioch and Damascus illustrate the tenacity of municipal vitality, even though a long succession of centuries brings great changes in the methods and subjects and courses of traffic.—Philadelphia Record.

Herbert Spencer.

A queer instance of the working of Herbert Spencer's mind is mentioned by the two sisters in whose household he lived. He came to the table one day absorbed in thinking about some photographs of the nebulae he had just received:

"As he rose from his chair he stood for a minute gazing with gleaming eyes into the distance, and then muttered in a disjointed fashion, as if half to himself, words to this effect: 'Thirty millions of suns, each probably having its own system, and supposing them each to be the size of a pin's head they are fifty miles apart! What does it all mean?' And then, without a pause and only a change of voice, 'The fluff still comes out of that cushion, you know,' as with a wave of his small, thin hand toward it he passed rapidly out of the room, leaving us both bewildered by the quickness with which his mind worked."

A Heavy Sample.

Sometimes the rigors of patent office procedure are not without their humorous side. A New York attorney filed an application for improvements in a centrifugal pump. The patent office declared the invention inoperative and demanded a working model. The patent office was requested to send an examiner to Trenton to inspect the machine in actual operation. This the patent office refused to do. The attorney, therefore, politely sent a seven ton pump to the patent office—sent it, moreover, from Trenton to satisfy a skeptical examiner. Twenty-one men were required to get it into the examiner's office.—Scientific American.

Titles In Germany.

The question of title is one of the most delicate in Germany, a fact of which the stranger is constantly reminded in intercourse with the people, particularly with the women. Frau Professor, Frau Director, Frau Doctor, are most particular about their husband's titles being attached to their own names, but when it comes to military circles it is different, and both men and women protest vigorously against this sharing of titles. Lieutenant von B. objects to having his wife addressed as Frau Lieutenant, which title belongs as well to the wife of Lieutenant Schmidt or Haff of a less aristocratic regiment.

The Most Curious Known Animal.

The most peculiar and remarkable animal in the world is the Ornithorynchus paradoxus, the famed egg laying mammal of Australia. It is shaped like an otter, has fur like a beaver, is web footed like a swam, has a bill like a duck and a tail like that of a fox. It is the only known fur covered creature that lays eggs. A corresponding oddity among feathered bipeds would be a bird that brought forth its young alive.

Luckiest Man in Arkansas.

"I'm the luckiest man in Arkansas," writes H. L. Stanley, of Bruno, "since the restoration of my wife's health after five years of continuous coughing and bleeding from the lungs; and I owe my good fortune to the world's greatest medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which I know from experience will cure consumption if taken in time. My wife improved with first bottle and twelve bottles completed the cure." Cures the worst coughs and colds or money refunded. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

You need a pill? Use DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Do not sicken or gripe, but results are sure. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.
